IMPORTANT MILESTONES

SEVADHAM in the DANG

The Trust has built a hostel in the beautiful, hilly surroundings of the tribal land. It is very appropriately named SEVADHAM. Arrangements are made for free lodging, boarding and educational aids very close to their dwelling places so as to not disturb their closely knit family life and that they remain connected with their culture. Facilities for such hostels are available at Ahwa in Dang, Songadh and also at Surat.

IMPROVING and NURTURING AGRICULTURE

“The ultimate goal of farming is not the growing of crops, but the cultivation and perfection of human beings.”

— Masanobu Fukuoka, The One-Straw Revolution

Approach to Agriculture in the Dang

To overall improve agriculture in the South Gujarat DAVKT is working through four-pronged strategy:

- Indigenous Seed Conservation
- Organic Manure
- Nurturing Cow Breeding
- Seed Distribution

Seed Conservation

The current practices in agriculture have replaced native seeds with the hybrid seeds. This has also change food eating habit. The traditional Nagli and Vari are replaced by hybrid rice variety. In order to prevent extinction of native seeds, DAVKT is encouraging farmers of Dang and Tapi districts to use native seeds instead of hybrid seeds through pilot programs. The seeds produce in their own fields are conserved and stored. This practice is ongoing and aims to create Seed Bank in each project village.

Organic Manure

DAVKT conducted organic fertilizer motivation tour for the farmers of Dang and Tapi districts with an aim to increase the use of organic fertilizers instead of chemical fertilizers. During motivational tour, farmers received extensive guidance from experts on importance of organic fertilizer and how to prepare organic fertilizers. The farmers who are already into organic fertilizer shared their experience and received further guidance about its usage and benefits.

Farmer's Fair

Dr Ambedkar Vanavasi Kalyan Trust conducted village tours for experts and motivation tours for farmers to get exposure of agricultural development and various trainings in Dang and Tapi districts as well as across South Gujarat. Through the medium of KRUSHAK MANDAL, farmers were encouraged to develop the attitude and spirit of meeting each other and sharing their experiences. Emphasis is laid on activities like Farmers Fairs to educate the farmers about latest techniques and scientific experimentation taking place in the field of agriculture. 175 Krushak Mandal meetings were organized to discuss village development issues. so far 2960 people have benefitted from this meeting.

Dr. B. R. Ambedkar

SAMBHAV

There is a dearth of talented and promising youth from tribal families and disadvantaged sections of the society to serve the nation by joining the Civil Services. With the aim to motivate the tribal youth, DAVKT has initiated SAMBHAV (It is Possible)—a centre to nurture and cater to the need of youth as well as bridge the gap to access the quality mentoring to prepare for Civil Services. The tribal students who secure admission in this center can also seek admission in the full fledged hostel set up in the premises. Students from other sections of the society are also given admission to SAMBHAV.

As a result of this huge effort, boys and girls coming from under privileged families are being trained in the virtues of leadership, excellence as well as in our ancient wisdom and value systems. DAVKT tries to inculcate passion, duty and sense of responsibility for the nation before joining the civil services.

The institution offers courses for the following competitive exams : UPSC, GPSC CLASS 1, 2 and CLASS 3.

Since 2012, upto year 2022, SAMBHAV has approximately trained 700+ students and managed to secure 104+ selections in Government offices in different classes. Government jobs not only give financial security to our students but also improve their status in society liberating them from the age-old discriminative practices of Indian Society.

The institution is unique in the context that it is not just any coaching institute but established with a motive to give HONEST, DEDICATED, NATIONALIST and INTEGRAL civil servants to the nation. It works on the overall development of the students by nurturing the physical as well as mental abilities and encouraging a proper lifestyle.

15 students from SAMBHAV cleared different exams and got placements in government sector in academic year 2021-22.

Total Enrolled Students – 700 +
